New Workmen's Compensation Act Has Members 'Up To Ears' In Business

GETTING SYSTEM STARTED PROVES DIFFICULT TASK

Employers and Employes, Insurance Men and Lawyers Help To Complicate Affairs

The industrial accident board for the city of Honolula is having its timmes. All the members of the board, wao were appointed by Governor Pink ham to serve without pay, will tell you bell (chairman), R. B. Booth, F. O. Layer, S. S. Paxson and F. E. Steere

These men are all busy ones in their respective lines of private business pussuits. Exigencies of their public dies, however, are requiring daily afternoon meetings and Chairman Campbell said yesterday that if "busi that nightly sees one as well as afternoon conclaves must be

Where the Rub Comes

Here is where the rub comes. The workmen's compensation act of Hawaii is new. So is the Honoiulu board inso far as workmen's compensation for Incerations or broken limbs or death is concerned. The act was created by the legislature. The board was created by the governor, Act and board went into joint effect July 1.

Now enter the insurance men and employers and attorneys. The board members are wondering how many more thousand questions or objections can be brought regarding or against various provisions of the act. Not be ing lawyers, they in turn are compelled to turn the bulk of these questions over to the city attorney for decision and

Eusiness Goes On Apace

Nevertheless, business goes on apace the board offices in the McCandless building. A filing case is rapidly be ing filled up with notifications by porations, companies and individuals that they have provided for the protection of their employes under provisions of the act. Yesterday afteron neither Chairman Campbell nor office employes would vouchsafe a hazand as to how many individual emoves had been insured, as tabulation had not been made and no estimate was

It was admitted, however, that because of questions and objections be ing raised returns have not been altogether satisfactory inasmuch as the law provides that all returns should have been made by July 1. Chairman Campbell stated vesterday that for this reason the board may be compelled to set a date on which final returns must be returned. The board is reluctant to would be acting within the law in so
